Airport Pickup

If a request for an Airport transfer service had been made, the driver will be waiting, holding a sign with EC and then your name on it at:

- The baggage claim area, if you should arrive via a DOMESTIC flight;
OR
- Outside the Immigration & Customs area, if you should arrive via an INTERNATIONAL flight

If you do not see the transportation representative immediately, please make sure to wait at least 15 minutes before leaving the designated meeting point to call the transfer company emergency number – 1800 609 1402. Even if the representative does not answer, you should still leave a message confirming your location and the agent will find you within a few minutes.

Please make sure to contact the EC Boston if there is any problem or the flight is missed, delayed or cancelled.

Other ways to get to your residence

Getting From Boston Logan Airport via Public Transportation:

Type of Transportation:

- › Taxi: on average $35-60 to get to either the host family or the shared apartment. Cost depends on the distance of destination.
- › The subway and bus routes serving Boston Logan International Airport are operated by the Massachusetts Bay Transportation Authority (better known as the MBTA or the "T") which include:
  - › MBTA Silver Line: Please follow the signs directing you to the proper boarding location for the Silver Line.
  - › The Silver Line's route SL1 (Logan Airport - South Station via Waterfront) bus rapid transit service available at Boston Logan, is your best direct connection to and from South Station (RED Line subway and South Shore / Metro West commuter rail services)
- › MBTA Subway & Bus: Board free Massport SHUTTLE buses to connect to the Blue Line (Airport Station). The Blue Line is your best connection to and from the MBTA Green Lines at Government Center Station. If you should need to transfer to a Red or Orange Line, please get off at Park Street Station from the Government Center Station.

Arrival Procedures

Please make sure to follow these instructions; otherwise, we cannot guarantee that the person who will check you in will be at the apartment when you arrive.

If you do not request the transfer service, it is very important that you call the EC Emergency phone en route to the residence so that we can have your most updated arrival time. Also, please let the person on the phone know if you plan on taking a taxi or use public transportation to the apartment. Someone then will be at the apartment in order to check you in.

If you have not provided us with your flight/arrival information, please do so as soon as possible, so that we can arrange for someone to let you in the apartment upon your arrival.
